

WHY SHOULD WE BID FOR TXSCYPAA?

The Texas State Conference of Young People in Alcoholics Anonymous, or TXSCYPAA, is an annual celebration of sobriety put on by Young AA's across Texas. The primary purpose of the conference is to share experience, strength, and hope with one another and to show the alcoholic who still suffers that there is a way out; there is a better way of life.

TXSCYPAA has remained a traveling conference for over 30 years, rotating between various Texas cities including (but not limited to) Houston, Dallas, Austin, San Antonio, Kerrville, and Abilene. During this time, TXSCYPAA has continued to give AA members throughout the state of Texas opportunities to be of service by spreading a message of experience, strength and hope to young and old potential AA's alike. However, we know that we have barely scratched the surface. Texas is a huge state with many cities that are able to get involved so it is important for the conference to be held all across this great land. This is where you come in!

What does it mean to bid? The bidding process begins when a group of AA's express interest in hosting TXSCYPAA in their respective city. This group will then have the opportunity to establish a bid committee that is responsible for completing the bid requirements listed below. The completion of these bid requirements will be demonstrated in two forms: 1) the assembly of a bid book outlining how the bid committee met each of the listed bid requirements and 2) a 20 minute presentation during the conference weekend.

The conference is more than just a fun and enlightening weekend of recovery. The process of hosting a conference requires a lot of hard work and dedication. The planning of a conference is a yearlong process with an array of service opportunities and commitments to be filled. What better way to bring a vast amount of service work to your area?

During the year of planning, TXSCYPAA affords your AA community with many opportunities to teach alcoholics the value of service in Alcoholics Anonymous. This gives the newcomer an overwhelming sense of belonging and purpose. Not only does the bid process provide attraction to Alcoholics Anonymous, it ensures that TXSCYPAA will keep going on for years to come, which could help end the suffering of alcoholics who never knew there was a way out!

SO HOW DO WE GET STARTED?

Easy! Go to your home group and announce that you want to start a bid to bring TXSCYPAA to your town, that you will need as much help as you can get with this and that, most importantly, it will help your fellow AAs stay sober in the process! If people show interest, as I am sure they will, then you can set a date to hold elections. You can find a list of the suggested positions to be elected and an outline of the election procedures attached below. This packet has all the information you need to create a successful bid. Remember these are suggestions and you can accommodate these to your group. Also, do not hesitate to contact the Advisory Council Bid Development Chairperson by writing to advisory@txscypaa.org. Please include "ATTN: Bid Development Chairperson" in the subject line.

BIDDING REQUIREMENTS

The following is the list of requirements to be followed and satisfied by a Bid Committee in order to be considered in the site selection process. A demonstration of their satisfaction should be submitted electronically as a formal bid “package” to the Advisory Council in PDF format 5 days prior to the Conference’s Saturday. Submissions should be emailed to advisory@txscypaa.org. Please include “[City] Bid Submission” in the subject line.

The Bid Session is held on Saturday morning of the Conference weekend. During the Bid Session, each Bid Committee must provide (1) hard copy of its submitted Bid Book; changes between the PDF copy and the hard copy are not permitted. Each Bid Committee is allowed twenty minutes to present their Bid Presentation, and the presentation must be in alignment with the 12 Steps, Traditions, and Concepts of AA.

The following list of bidding requirements were carefully selected by the TXSCYPAA Advisory Council as criteria used to determine a bid committee’s ability to transition effectively into a Host Committee. The intention of this list was never to disqualify any group of AAs from bidding for TXSCYPAA and any act of due diligence displaying effort to fulfill any of these requirements will be considered a completion of said requirement.

However, we strongly suggest that you include at least two. Please include the proposed dates and diagrams of available meeting areas.
4. To ensure that TXSCYPAA operates in the spirit of cooperation, Bid Committees must present a letter from local Intergroup, DCM, Area, or similar listing large-scale A.A. events to be held in their city 30 days prior or 30 days after their proposed Conference dates.
5. Bidders must provide a tentative outline of the conference program.

SUGGESTIONS FOR OBTAINING HOTEL CONTRACTS

Item	Goal	Notes
Hotel Contract Budget	$7,500*	To be based on conference location and hotel availability. *Please discuss with Advisory Council on appropriate cost based on city.
Ballroom Space	600-800 Occupancy*	Used for Main Speaker Meetings Friday, Saturday, Sunday. *Please discuss with Advisory Council on size required.
Breakout Rooms	At least 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marathon Meeting • Hospitality Suite • Advisory Room • Additional Meeting Space
Dates for Booking	Last Weekend of October	Last weekend of October is strongly suggested
Room Blocks	Friday: 40-80 Saturday:40-80	Room block numbers will vary depending on city size/conference needs. If you have questions about what your room block should look like, please ask Advisory.
Room Rates	Less than or equal to $110/night	Contract may list rates based on occupancy count in the room
Food/Beverage	Waive "No Outside Food or Beverage" as the Host Committee will need to run a stocked Hospitality Suite.	Try to have contract allow Outside Food and Beverage for Hospitality Suite and/or Guests
Food/Beverage Minimum	Waive Food/Beverage Minimum	If not willing to waive, ask Hotel to stock their own coffee, energy drinks, snacks before/after main meetings and put it in the contract that revenue from these cash-and-carry vending stations will count toward the F&B minimum.
Minimum Guest Room Revenue	80% or less attrition rate	Be mindful of contract language. Most hotels indicate a goal of 80%. If the group room pickup is less than 80% then the group is responsible for paying the difference between their actual room pickup and 80%.

Cut off dates for reservations	Hotel will dictate a cutoff date for reservations (usually 30 days). It is ideal if they put in some language to say that after the cutoff date, rooms will still be offered at the event room rate to our attendees based on availability (which means that people can still book last minute and get our room rate), and that they will count those rooms toward our block for the purposes of calculating whether we met our minimum guest room revenue. It is also a good thing to put wording in there making it clear that the hotel and someone from the committee will meet on Sunday (the last day of the conference) and go over the list of attendees and the names on their room booking list to make sure that we have counted everyone toward our room block who booked a room and was an attendee.
Mutual Cancellation	Goal is to have a clause indicating: "Should either party decide to cancel this meeting anytime after the confirmation of this contract, liquidated damages equal to [$5,340.00] shall be paid by the canceling party to the non canceling party at the time of cancellation. This amount is agreed not to constitute a penalty. In the event that the size of the meeting is substantially reduced by the number of rooms, the above amount shall be prorated accordingly by the appropriate percentage reduction of the total revenue and a liquidated damage amount shall be paid as a result of the partial cancellation." amount is usually based on the meeting space and room block revenue that they expect from the conference
Payment Timeline	Ideal: Have it in writing that all payments will be made after the conference with direct billing. Have the direct billing form filled out and ready to submit within 30 days of advisory signing your hotel contact. Settle for: A small deposit at signing, and/or a $1000-2000 deposit a week before the conference followed by a payment after the conference to settle up the remaining balance.	If the hotel will not budge on making you pay up front, it might even be worth pointing out to the hotel (as a last resort) that because most of our revenue comes at the conference, we can afford to pay a little more for meeting space rental if they will allow us to pay them the day after the event.
Contract Timeline	Have the hotel to hold the space listed in the contract on a tentative basis until some date a few weeks after the TXSCYPAA in which you are awarded the bid.	This should allow for time for some final negotiations rather than being rushed to sign the contract in order to secure the space. It might even be good to request that the hotel will notify you if they receive another request for the same weekend and allow forty-eight (48) hours for you to return a signed contract.

Security/Misc. Charges	Ask the hotel to make it clear in the contract if we will be required to provide security. If we were not required, we asked them to say so in the contract. If we were required, we asked them to put the exact amount it will cost us in the contract or if they were willing to allow us to provide our own security (rather than paying the hotel directly for their security guards).
Audio/Visual	Remove language specifying we need to use their vendor and bring an outside vendor and pay "patch fees" to use the hotel's existing speakers, or at least make it clear in writing how much it will cost for us to get a microphone from them and hook it into their house sound so that we do not sign the contract without it and get charged a bunch of money later on.	Lots of times, the hotel contracts for nicer hotels will say you have to use their preferred AV vendor, or say that if you do not use their vendor you have to pay a penalty. Also, it is good to be sure that we can have a DJ come into the hotel on Friday/Saturday night and bring in lots of lights and sound equipment for a dance/entertainment and that there will not be a fee for having an outside vendor come into the hotel/use electricity.
